

Personal Response to texts

“Arming The Spirit” by James Faludy

Consider the message (thesis) of Faludy’s essay. Do you believe that arming the spirit is an essential quality in today’s society? The bigger question then is...how do you arm your spirit? What are the things in your life that fulfill your soul?

Remember that you are free to respond in any style you desire. You may choose to respond in the form of a personal essay, a narrative, a short story, a magazine article, a diary entry or a stream-of consciousness piece. The only form that you are forbidden from responding in is poetry. We will work with this form later.

Your writing should have a beginning and an end and it should illustrate your best writing techniques. Avoid bland and cliché statements and use stylistic elements and effective structure.

Most importantly, THINK!!
